BAMID reserves the right to remit the Funding amount by installments in consideration of the annual budget allocated from year to year.

Article 10

Where a motion picture or television drama receives the Funding herein, the motion picture or television drama is not eligible for the other production and marketing grants from BAMID.

Article 11 – Obligations to perform

- (1) A Recipient is not to submit deceitful and untruthful materials to apply for or obtain the Letter of Eligibility or the Letter of Funding Approval.

- (2) In the event a corporate entity or group that receives funding from BAMID engages procurement, where the funding amount accounts for one-half or more of the procurement expenditure and reaches or exceeds the amount stipulated in Government Procurement Act, it is subject to the provisions of Government Procurement Act as well as the supervision by BAMID. Whereas the preceding paragraph does not apply to procurements related to arts and culture, the corporate entity or group that receives funding is subject to supervision by BAMID in accordance with “Regulations Governing Arts and Cultural Procurements by Juridical Persons or Groups in Receipt of Government Grants” and, if necessary, is liable to accept the auditing of quality, progress, or other matters pertaining to the procurement by BAMID and to provide information or materials of the procurement related to arts and culture at the request of BAMID, whether the conditions stipulated in the Subparagraphs under the Paragraph (1) of Article 12 of the Regulations are met.
- (3) The logo of BAMID provided thereby is to place at the opening titles or closing credits of the funded motion picture or television drama.
- (4) A Recipient is to provide documents and materials pursuant to the Article 8 and Article 9 herein for case closure.
- (5) A Recipient is to provide the required documents stipulated in Article 7 herein.
- (6) A Recipient, and the head thereof, is to abide by the laws and regulations pertaining to gender equality and relevant labor laws and regulations, including the Labor Standards Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Act, and carry out risk assessments and safety protection measures in line with the labor laws and regulations.

Article 12 – Punishments for Breach of the Directions

- (1) Where a Recipient fails to comply with the obligations stipulated in Paragraph (1) , Paragraph (2), or Paragraph (6) in the preceding Article, BAMID is entitled to, in line with the severity of the violation, revoke the Letter of Eligibility or annul, in part or in whole, the eligibility thereof to the Funding and to not disburse the amount of Funding nor compensation or restitution of any kind thereto; the Recipient is liable to return the amount received without interest by the time specified by BAMID. A Recipient with the eligibility to Funding revoked or annulled may not apply for the Funding herein for a period of two years upon the date of revocation or annulation, nor may the Recipient apply for any grant from BAMID prior to a full return of the excess amount of the Funding received.

- (2) Provided that a Recipient fails to comply with the obligations stipulated in Paragraph (3) or Paragraph (4) in the preceding Article, upon a written notice with a specified period for correction by BAMID, the Recipient is liable to take one corrective action within the specified period; BAMID is to annul the Funding thereof or the eligibility thereof as a result of failure to take corrective action within the specified period, insufficient correction made, or correction made not in line with the obligations of the Recipient, and to not disburse the Funding amount nor compensation or restitution of any kind thereto.
- (3) In the event that a Recipient fails to comply with the obligations stipulated in Paragraph (5) in the preceding Article, upon a written notice by BAMID for one corrective action within a specified period, the pertaining expenses of the changed items may not be reimbursed by the Funding herein as a result of failure to take corrective action within the specified period, insufficient correction made, or correction made not in line with the obligations thereof by the Recipient.
- (4) In the event of a Recipient in violation of relevant labor laws and regulations, including the Labor Standards Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Act, stated in Subparagraph (6) of the preceding Article that has been prosecuted by a prosecutor or found by a competent authority, BAMID may, in line with the severity of such violation, annul the eligibility thereof to the Funding, in part or in whole, and the Recipient may not apply for the Funding herein for a period of one to two years upon the year of annulation. The same applies to the head of a Recipient in violation of the laws and regulations pertaining to gender equality that has been prosecuted by a prosecutor or found by a competent authority.

Article 13 – Supplementary Provisions

- (1) BAMID may approve the applications under the Directions each year on the basis of the amount of annual budget allocated respectively. Where the Funding sums exceeds the total amount of the budget allocated, BAMID is entitled to cease accepting applications.

- (2) In the event of the budget for Funding herein reduced or frozen by the Legislative Yuan or BAMID unable to disburse out of a reason not attributable to BAMID, BAMID is entitled to cease accepting applications or issuing Letter of Eligibility or to suspend disbursement of amounts to the Applicants approved while Applicants may not demand compensation or restitution therefrom.
- (3) In the case of inconsistency, conflict, or any unsettled issue, BAMID reserves the right to the interpretation of the provisions in the Directions.
